

Mrs. Fletcher Is New Vice President Of Republican Club

Mrs. Paul M. Fletcher, this city, was elected vice president of the Sixth district of the state Women's Republican club, Mrs. Miles Thompson, delegate to the organization state convention held in Baltimore last month, reported at the meeting of the local club last evening at the Girl Scout little house.

Other state officers elected are Mrs. David Tighman, Baltimore, president; Mrs. Louis Godfrey, vice president; Mrs. Harvey Kline, recording secretary; Mrs. John Oberst, corresponding secretary; and Mrs. John Koch, treasurer. Mayor Theodore R. McKeldin spoke on the financial situation of the city of Baltimore.

The members voted a donation of $10 to the community chest drive and formulated plans for the Christmas party. The latter will be held in the form of a banquet and jingle party at 6:30 o'clock December 11 at Centre Street Methodist church social hall. There will also be special entertainment to be announced later. Mrs. Harry Anderson was appointed general chairman by Mrs. David Steele, co-chairman are Mrs. James Orr and Mrs. Catherine McCullough. Reservations must be made with the chairman or Miss Bessie Harrison by the evening of December 7.

James B. Craig, Cumberland News reporter, a veteran of thirty-eight months' service in the southwest Pacific, was guest speaker. He was introduced by Mrs. Fletcher.

Craig gave a talk, illustrated with drawings, on the tremendous amount of preparations that go on in an infantry headquarters unit in a jungle area just prior to an amphibious landing. He stressed the amount of detail that Pacific commanders insisted that their men assimilate in preparing for such operations. He also made some drawings of interesting characters he encountered while in the Pacific theatre and drew a diagram of some highly "fortified" Japanese positions that were encountered, including a large cave that housed a battalion of men.

A social hour concluded the evening and refreshments were served. Mrs. Karl Bachman was chairman of arrangements.

Temperature Drops To 38 Degrees Here

The temperature in Cumberland was down to thirty-eight degrees last night, just six degrees above freezing, and it was considered likely that a colder minimum temperature would be recorded in the early morning hours than the thirty-seven degree minimum reading recorded here yesterday.

The Western Maryland railway reported that the temperature had dropped to the freezing point at both Thomas, W. Va., and Deal, Pa., at midnight. The decline was said to be "slow."

Railroader's Condition Critical; Leg Amputated

Edward E. Henderson, 605 Hill Top drive, remained in a critical condition in Mercy hospital, Pittsburgh, last night after undergoing an amputation of the left leg Monday following an accident in the Connelville, Pa., yards of the Baltimore and Ohio railroad on November 3.

Mrs. Henderson said her husband's condition is no better although he was resting more comfortably. She said she knows none of the details of the accident except that the wheel of a freight car ran over her husband's leg.

William King reported to police that windows in the old barrel factory, Euclid place, have been broken recently. Youths are held responsible by police.

cars in living through the difficult days ahead.

The chief part of his address, however, was devoted to humorous anecdotes, including incidents which he has observed in his travels as a lecturer in thirty-nine states, and illustrations of typical American humor, some of which he described as "pure corn."

Group Singing Held

Dr. Dern, who is pastor of St. Paul's Episcopal church in Newport, said that he should give up his lecture tours and return to his parish, but he remarked that feeling was in his blood and added that he would probably be still speaking before organizations throughout the country at the age of 90.

The invocation was given by the Rev. H. Hall Sharp, pastor of St. Luke's Lutheran church. Group singing was led by Lloyd Rawlings, with Mrs. Herbert Platt at the piano.

P. Lee Fresh, president of the club, presided at the dinner.

The speaker was introduced by George L. Buchanan, program chairman. The committee in charge of arrangements, directed by O. J. Hale, included Buchanan, James W. Bishop, Albert Tomsko, William J. Edwards and Grant Wiebel.

Atomic Secrets

scientific information essential to the development of atomic energy for "peaceful purposes." It is stated, and officials said that together with Britain and Canada the country now stands ready to release remaining basic scientific information thus far withheld because of its possible military applications. This first step does not have to wait on action by the United Nations.

Data Would Be Distributed

Detailed information "concerning the practical industrial application of atomic energy" will be given to other United Nations if and when the United Nations organization has worked out "effective enforceable safeguards" against its use for destructive purposes.

3. In order to set up these safeguards the United Nations should organize at their London meeting in January a special commission to plunge into the whole problem of atomic energy and atomic explosives and come up with control and development recommendations.

4. The commission should try first to promote a full and free flow of scientific information among nations, and, second, full information on resources of atomic energy raw materials.

5. Beyond these specific steps Truman, Attlee and King declared that every nation now must realize "the overwhelming need to maintain the rule of law among nations" and to banish war. To that end they called for supporting, consolidating and extending the United Nations organization.

Company Absolved of Blame

No sentence was passed on the guilty trainmen. The court held that the demolition in position and seniority at the hands of the railroad company was sufficient penalty.

The railroad company was absolved of all blame in the matter at Mexico Farms as it was proven that the company had given definite orders that the crossing should not be blocked.

The case was brought by the commissioners represented by Whitworth after repeated appeals to the board from residents of the Mexico Farms for relief from freight trains which blocked the road leading into the Uhl highway for long periods of time.

Government Knew

earliest dating back to December 2, 1940, and marked translated on January 14, 1941.

As its initial witnesses, the committee heard Rear Adm. T. B. Inglis and Col. Bernard Thibien. In what Mitchell termed a "narrative statement" concerning the military dispositions in Hawaii and what happened there on December 7, 1941.

For the most part this was a summary of what had been made public previously in longer form in the reports from the army and navy boards which made investigations.

Neither witness was at Pearl Harbor at the time of the attack. But even this non-controversial matter brought a clash between Sen. Ferguson (R-Mich.) and the Democrats.

Ferguson Is Stood Down

One of Inglis' aides, with a schoolmaster's pointer, was indicating on a big, easel-mounted map the direction from which the raiding Japanese planes came when Ferguson sought to ask a question.

"I raise a point of order," snapped Sen. Lucas (D-Ill.).

Chairman Barkley (D-Ky.) said Lucas was right, that a question from Ferguson would violate a committee rule that the counsel was to complete his examination before any member asked questions.

Ferguson protested but Barkley stood him down.

At the outset of the hearing, Sen. Brewster (R-Maine) had protested its "premature" start as did Ferguson. They said that it had been a physical impossibility for them to examine the exhibits beforehand and that hence they were not adequately prepared to cross-examine witnesses.

When Mitchell introduced the translation of coded Japanese messages, Ferguson demanded to know whether they were "supposed to be complete." He and Brewster have contended that certain messages, notably a Tokyo broadcast, "East winds, raining," (described as the code for war with United States) are missing.

"I am not claiming anything is complete," Mitchell replied.

Do You Know HOW TO SHAVE?

MANY MEN shave all their lives, yet never learn how! They simply smear a little lather or brushless cream on their face, grab a razor, and shave. Result: scratch, scrape, pull—an irritated skin—an unsatisfactory shave—and much unflattering comment about blade, razor, soap or whatever!

TO SHAVE PROPERLY, the first requirement is adequate preparation. Wash your face thoroughly with hot water and ordinary soap to remove the grit, oil and perspiration that ordinarily coats the face, and to soften the hair. Use good hot water—the time required for proper softening decreases rapidly, the hotter your water is. Then rinse the face thoroughly.

Now apply a good shaving soap (rubbing the lather in well with fingertips) or, if you prefer, a brushless cream. These preparations further emulsify the natural oil of the skin and permit the hairs to be wet more thoroughly. Allow from two to three minutes, or even longer for these simple tasks, and your shave will be quicker, easier, and more satisfactory.

So men, prepare your face properly, use plenty of time and water, get yourself some of those hollow ground blades and—learn to make shaving a pleasanter, easier task.

The British Loan

And Some Snags

WASHINGTON reports that the United States and British conferences have again failed to agree on the terms of a loan program to Britain, and statements made by some House members are interpreted as a warning that serious legislative opposition awaits Britain's loan proposals which fail to provide interest charges.

The argument for the non-interest loan is confined to terms. The Truman administration has suggested that the loan should be no higher than three and a half billion, all payable at two per cent interest over a period of fifty-five years, but the London government has reacted with a request for one billion loan with a two per cent interest and another two billion of credit entirely free of interest.

It is likely that some things other than interest rate haggling will be injected into the proposals when they reach the floors of Congress, and properly so. Three of them especially.

One is the dislike of contributing to a government, albeit a friendly ally, that is promoting socialism against free enterprise. This was set down in remarks by Representative A. L. Miller (R-Neb.) "To my mind," he said, "planned economy and freedom of the individual are incompatible. Mr. Attlee's speech showed that Britain is definitely going to the left and is exploring the fields of socialism. And yet they want a loan to destroy freedom of individual enterprise."

Another thing is the reminder that this nation poured many billions into Britain for the war program besides its lend-lease contributions, thus holding up its share of the war cost.

Another item is the glaring and reprehensible fact that Great Britain following the First World War repudiated its heavy loans to this country and its spokesmen called Uncle Sam a Shylock when suggestion was made that there should be a repudiation but that the debt should be regarded as such until such time as Britain was able to pay it. But no, there was not even token payment of interest or principal. Britain, disregarding all ethics, just wiped it off the slate and that was that.

That record is not going to impress American taxpayers who are weary and agree upon the most equitable division of the company's revenues "among workers, management, stockholders and consumers, the latter in the form of low prices."

Knowland's Wage Plan Has a Snag

SENATOR KNOWLAND (R-Calif.) has advanced a "pay-as-you-earn" plan for negotiating wage increases, designed to bring labor and management together and provide an incentive for ever-greater production.

The plan calls for employers and employees to sit down together and agree upon the most equitable division of the company's revenues "among workers, management, stockholders and consumers, the latter in the form of low prices."

To encourage greater production rather than a "doctrine of scarcity" brought on by either stoppages of production or governmental action, labor and management would agree upon a "leeway" raise. A fixed wage adjustment would be made in the first place, but then only so much of the additional "leeway" would be granted as was earned.

In submitting the plan to the Secretary of Labor Schwelbensch, Knowland said he and Blair Moody, Washington correspondent of the "Detroit News," had been working on it for some time.

In the present situation, "the better said, a fixed ten per cent hourly wage increase should be granted immediately, with 'commensurate adjustments for salaried employees' unless management can show that such action would jeopardize the company in the absence of price relief."

The plan is novel and intriguing but a snag is discernible. It might work out so long as wage increases were possible, but its success might be imperiled in the event conditions proved such that there would have to be a wage decrease. Then there would be a strike or other work stoppage and the whole plan would go haywire. For present purposes it might work out, but as a permanent plan it appears to have the disadvantage of treating only one side of the economic picture.

Important Scarlet Fever Discovery

READERS of this newspaper naturally are interested in new developments of medical science, particularly with regard to remedial methods in coping with contagious diseases, wherefore an item about a new treatment of scarlet fever, unfortunately crowded out of the telegraph news, is herewith passed on to them.

It is a report by the "Journal of the American Medical Association" of a successful seven-day treatment of this disease with penicillin. The treatment, consisting of injection of 10,000 units of penicillin into the muscles every three hours, effected in rapidly eliminating the germ-causing infection (hemolytic streptococci) from the nose and throat within forty-eight hours, the report said.

Drs. Manson Meads, M. Eugene Flipse, Jr., Maxwell Finland and Mildred W. Barnes, with the collaboration of Ruth Drew and Alice Norstrom, Boston, studied four groups of nine patients each who were admitted to the South department of the Boston City hospital between January and May, 1945.

The authors emphasized that their conclusions were "only tentative" because they were based on a "very small number of cases."

Each of the groups of scarlet fever patients was treated differently. Group A was given no sulfonamides or antibiotics; Group B with muscular injections of penicillin; Group C with sulfadiazine taken by mouth, and Group D with nose and throat sprays with a penicillin solution. Best results were obtained in Group B.

The report said clinical results suggested the muscular treatment might "minimize or even eliminate" late complications involving the ear, heart and joints and dangerous damage to the kidneys.

"Furthermore, should these findings be corroborated on a large scale," the report added, "patients could be discharged after eight or ten days without danger of giving rise to secondary cases or of cases returning with complications."

Since the present requirement for isolation of scarlet fever patients is three to four weeks, and since the disease is one of the worst of the contagious type, particularly with regard to its after-effects, this development is of importance.

Disappointing Motor Production Record

FIGURES on output in the motor industry during the four months prior to November 1 have now been made public by the Civilian Production Administration. They make sad reading.

Production has fallen far short of expectations. Last summer, when the automobile plants began shifting over to peacetime operation, War Production Board experts estimated that they would build 72,740 passenger cars in the first four months. They turned out 19,136, or slightly more than twenty-six per cent of the predicted total.

As for the explanation, the CPA report makes no bones about it. The two factors blamed are piecemeal shipments of component parts and wage negotiations. In actuality there is only one main factor, apparently, for it is common knowledge that parts have not been available in adequate supply because of labor troubles.

Here, then, is positive and depressing proof that industrial strife can wreck the nation's hopes for a swift transition to peacetime production. It has been provided by an industry that should be making speedy progress toward full production because delays will be costly not only to consumers, stockholders and workers but to the general public.

Buyers who want and need cars are waiting. If they can be served, stockholders can expect reasonable dividends and workers can expect to continue to receive high wages and the public need have less fear of inflation. But if the cars are not built, they cannot be sold—and they are not being built in the numbers anticipated.

Dr. E. E. Church, president of Potomac State college at Keyser, says the public schools should work to secure the peace. He was speaking, naturally, only of the schools, but it is a good idea for extension into all fields of endeavor—businessmen, professional men, organizations of all kinds, citizens in general, and it might be added, with home application, the industrial workers and industrial management.

The report by James C. Shriver, postmaster, that many more applications for Christmas postal jobs were received from young people than could be filled is reassurance that ambition for useful service still obtains among the growing-ups.

The Hungarian pengoe is down to 100,000 to the dollar. In that country matching pengoes is not gambling—it's just a waste of time. The new ratio is another reminder of what inflation can do.

Reports now have it that there will be a shortage of 12,000,000 tons in the coal supply this winter. Goose pimples, it seems, will go unrationed.

New Orleans, Louisiana, And Thereabout

By GEORGE MATTHEW ADAMS

One of the most fascinating and interesting areas of ground in all the North American continent is to be found upon the Gulf of Mexico, reaching northward from the Mississippi delta and spreading east and west, comprising the great city of New Orleans, the state of Louisiana and the territory thereabout.

It has taken volumes, and it will take many more, to adequately tell the complete story of this unique land and its people. Spain, France, England and a host of dreamy adventurers have left their impress upon the thoughts, customs and achievements that face the visitor today as he looks for the first time upon this romantic and adventurous country.

Many times I have happily visited these parts, but how sorry I am that I could not have first visited Harnett T. Kane, and travelled with him in his four books that have made this country so alive to us all. Each one of them fairly drips with fragrant historic lore. From his first book, "Louisiana Hayride," the story of Huey Long, through his others, "The Bayous of Louisiana," "Deep Delta Country," and his recent one, "Plantation Parade," you get a picture that makes you want to get out the old car at once or get a rapid railroad ticket and see it all for yourself.

It has been a long time since I have read such an absorbing series of books about one section of any country. Harnett Kane is a native of this section, and a super-reportorial graduate of the greatest university that I know anything about—the Daily Newspaper.

To this country west and northward from New Orleans came the Acadians, and nearby is one of the greatest bird sanctuaries and flower gardens in all America, at Avery Island. "Along the Great Sea of the Mississippi, and at the edges of the bayous, an empire unfolded during the 18th and 19th centuries," and "here were the witty, urbane Creoles who made this a corner of France." I can think of no better preparation for a visit to this part of the world than to read each one of Harnett Kane's books.

And I might add right here that it is about time that Americans directed their own North American continent, including the delightful summer vacation land of our kooky neighbor—Canada.

T. L. Richards Talks To Cresap DAR On Local History

Mineral County Bar Association Holds Meeting

Is First Session Since Integration under New State Law

By LUKE McDOWELL
KEYSER, W. Va., Nov. 15 — A meeting of the Mineral County Bar Association was held in the law library at the court house Tuesday afternoon. An act passed at the 1945 session of the legislature provides for the West Virginia Bar Association to be composed of all members of the bar within the state, starting with the judges of the supreme court of appeals and including all judges of lesser courts and all practicing attorneys.

In compliance with the provisions of the constitution, president Emory L. Tyler completed the county organization by appointing the following committees:
Executive—the president, Emory L. Tyler, the vice president, Vernon E. Rankin, and H. R. Athey and Howard Rogers.
Grievance—Harry K. Drane, chairman, and Ruth Tyler Martin, Harry R. Taylor and James H. Swadley, Jr.
Legal reform—Arthur Arnold, chairman, R. A. Welch and Judge Ernest A. See.
Biography—H. G. Shores, chairman, J. Clark Bright and Harry K. Drane.
Library—Emory L. Tyler, chairman, R. A. Welch, Arthur Arnold and Lester Reynolds.
Judge See read a paper prepared by Robert McDougal and read before a recent meeting of the West Virginia Bar Association. The paper dealt with the movement to establish the integrated bar association and how the fact was accomplished in several states of the union and the procedure as to how the organization came about.
In West Virginia the movement has been on for several years and was finally realized in the enactment of the law at the last session of the legislature.
Miss Virginia Laughlin, state president of Business and Professional Women, was guest last evening of the Keyser club at a dinner meeting held at the Blue Jay.
Miss Laughlin spoke of the federation's objectives and policies, the membership and program, reasons for belonging to the Business and Professional Women and the emblem. The state convention dates are May 18 and 19, 1946.
Other features of the program included the club collect, two readings by Miss Alma Peters and group singing. Mrs. Carl Peters, president, was in charge and conducted a short business session.

Services Held
Cleal E. Riggelman, who died Saturday, was buried from Rogers chapel at two o'clock Tuesday afternoon, the Rev. A. R. Showalter, pastor First Church of the Brethren, officiating. Interment was in Queens Point cemetery.
Pallbearers were Otho Riley Parent Davis, Clarence Miller, Stanley Huffman, I. C. Delawder and Ashby See.
Boor Services Held
W. K. Boor, 78, former resident of Keyser, who died at his home in Cumberland Monday afternoon, was buried in Queen Point cemetery Thursday afternoon.

Council Denies Application To Install Gas Storage Tank above Ground

An application of D. D. Parks, manager for the Spur Distributing Company, Nashville, Tenn., to install a 15,000 gallon gasoline storage tank above ground at a service station at 88 Wineow street has been denied by the mayor and city council.
The action was taken upon the recommendation of Ralph L. Rizer, city engineer, and Fire Chief Reid C. Hoenicka. Chief Hoenicka said he saw no reason to change the practice in the city and added that having a gasoline storage tank above the ground would be "dangerous." R. Frantz as assistant health officer by the health board was confirmed and the payroll for the first two weeks was approved.

How to Get a Crisply Browned Turkey

SHARPEN THE CARVING KNIFE, POP . . . That bird's here again.

By CHARLOTTE ADAMS
Associated Press Food Editor

Turkey's the bird for Thanksgiving. During the war years we "made do" with substitutes and it was no great hardship to do without turkey because we knew they had gone to our armed forces.

In this thankful year of 1945, with a bumper crop of the traditional bird expected, perhaps a reminder is due as to how to prepare a big, crisply browned turkey.

First, if you're interested in saving time on Thanksgiving day, stuff the bird the day before and store it in the refrigerator. It can then be pound. Baste occasionally with a combination of one-half cup butter or margarine and one-half cup of water. When this is used up baste with pan drippings. Turn turkey to brown on all sides. If one spot becomes too brown, cover it with a slice of bread until rest of the skin is evenly browned.

Giblet Gravy

Cover all giblets except liver with cold water, bring to boil, reduce heat, and simmer gently for an hour. Add liver and a little salt and simmer another twenty minutes. Strain, reserving liquor, and chop giblets fine. Combine four table-spoons turkey pan drippings with an equal quantity of flour and stir until blended. Gradually add giblet liquor, extended with water to measure two cups. Cook until gravy thickens, stirring constantly. Add chopped giblets and seasoning.

Left-over turkey makes delicious dishes. Try this one, for instance, which was brought to me by a friend from the Island of Malta.

Pilau of Turkey

2 cups cooked turkey 1/2 cup rice
Rich cream 1/2 teaspoon saffron
Sauce Cooked currants
4 slices bacon, crisp

Boil rice with saffron, press into a ring mold and unmold on a round platter. In the center of the mold place the turkey, which has been heated in the cream sauce. Sprinkle over it the bacon, broken into fine pieces. Pour currants over all.

Cooked Currants

Simmer a half cup of dried currants and a quarter cup of sugar in water to cover until the liquid is evaporated to the point where you have a small amount of fairly thick sauce.

Insane Jealousy Is Root of Much Human Tragedy

By BEATRICE FAIRFAX
Famous Authority on Problems of Love and Marriage

People whose lives have been wrecked by jealousy often write to this column and ask the cause of this passion, the root of so much human tragedy. The briefest summary of jealousy is—fear, suspicion, resentment arising from mistrust of another.

The latest of these blind frenzies which doubtless you've read about in the papers comes from the West coast. It includes murder, suicide, the disrupted home life of three children, stigmatized for life, the broken home of a soldier and a woman in a prison cell moaning that it was all a mistake.

The woman who caused the ruin of so many lives is 45 years of age and was once regarded as a beauty. She saw her husband in a motor with another woman, and without stopping to inquire the cause of their being together, made an appointment with the "other woman" and shot and mortally wounded her. Then the all-too-simple explanations came out. The woman's husband, a physician, had taken a hospital nurse on an emergency call, and, seeing them together, the wife went jealous-mad.

With her dying breath, the nurse assured her that she and the physician were hurrying to an emergency case, with someone's life hanging in the balance. The wife then drove the mortally-wounded nurse to a hospital, where she died. And the wife whose jealous frenzies had subsided began to call for her husband. Why wasn't he there? Why wouldn't he come to her? She wanted to explain.

But her husband was beyond explanation. He was dead in his car, slumped over from the poison he had taken, unable to face the tragedy his wife's insane jealousy had brought upon him, his three children and the soldier-husband of the nurse serving overseas.

It's easy enough to mortelize. Why did the woman, apparently sane in normal times let jealous madness wreck her mind? Why didn't she stop to think of her children, her husband's career, the dead woman and the soldier-husband?

Few Items Saved From Demolished Oakland Stores

Overheated Flue Blamed for Fire; Eight Families Made Homeless

By GEORGE H. HANST
OAKLAND, Nov. 15.—Before the smoke had cleared away and while firemen were still playing streams of water on the smoldering ruins, businessmen were already at work today salvaging a number of items from their stores in what was once the Nally building, corner of Second and Alder streets.

Five places of business were entirely demolished and eight families living in apartments on the second floor of the brick veneer structure were made homeless, occupants losing everything they owned, except what they wore. The loss was estimated at between $40,000 and $50,000, which is only partially covered by insurance.

Flames Spread Quickly
The fire had its inception from an overheated flue which broke through the partitions in the Lou Cornish inn, facing Second street. Flames quickly spread to the upper floor, prohibiting those in apartments from saving any of their furnishings, and broke through the roof in less than an hour.

In the meantime the Western Auto Associate store, the A. and P. store, the Oakland Sales Company warehouse and offices and Coffey's Coffee shop were enveloped within the building and Oakland firemen began frantic efforts to save adjoining structures.

Fanned by a strong wind, with temperatures around the freezing mark, the inferno threw sparks and blazing portions of fire through the entire block and had it not been for the rain and snow on the rooftops, dozens of other fires would have been set. The space occupied by the A. and P. store, with concrete walls, is credited with halting the flames on the first floor and allowing firemen time to save the adjoining Brown building which houses the Daniel P. Smouse grocery store and Selective Service board on first floor and the apartment of Mrs. Prema Brown on the second.

Records of the draft board were moved across the street to the hall way of the First National Bank building, and Mrs. Brown's furniture and other belongings were carried out by volunteers and stored in nearby business places. Attorney A. T. Matthews and the C. and A. Gas company also moved some of their belongings, fearing the flames would spread to their offices.

Other Companies Respond
A call was sent to other fire companies and Terra Alta, Piedmont, Westport, Luke, Thomas, Beryl, Bloomington and Friendsville responded and helped to confine the fire to the one building. It was brought under controls about 1:30 a. m., but firemen were still applying water this afternoon.

Families made homeless by the fire include Mr. and Mrs. William Dunbar, Mrs. Mabel Flannigan, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Coffey, Mr. and Mrs. Bernard Nally, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Ferguson, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Root, Mrs. Ruth Bowers, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Wolfe and their families.

Emory Bolden, fire chief, said that the arrival of the Terra Alta company was at an opportune time and their work in the alleyway back of the Maryland theatre was instrumental in saving the old Tracy building and helping to save the Brown structure.

The Westernport company placed its truck at the disposal of the local organization to take care of other possible emergencies in the town and remained in Oakland until about noon today.

Purchase Business
Herbert Ritchie and Arvie Ritchie have purchased the grocery business of Daniel P. Smouse, Alder street, and were scheduled to open for business today. It is located in the building adjacent to the disastrous fire but nothing was damaged there.

Herbert Ritchie has been employed by the West Maryland Power company while his brother has been engaged in defense work in Baltimore. They are natives of the Red House community.

Smouse is beginning his duties as a bookkeeper for the Duesch Wholesale Produce company.

Out-of-State Insurance Companies Are Warned

BALTIMORE, Nov. 15 (AP)—John O. Rutherford, clerk of the Baltimore city court, said today that a "blunt warning" would be sent to about thirty out-of-state insurance companies doing business in Maryland to pay judgments for court costs.

The alternative, he said, was possible revocation of their licenses by the insurance commissioner. He added that a check of his records showed that since 1943, fifty judgments for court costs against out-of-state insurance companies had remained unpaid. The sums due totalled $1,000, he said.

Price Criticizes French Policies

WASHINGTON, Nov. 15 (AP)—Byron Price, President Truman's special investigator, said today that French policies are leading to the "economic dismemberment" of Germany, contrary to the aims of the Potsdam agreement.

Price told White House newsmen after a call on the president, that France had refused to agree to any plans of the control council to keep Germany as an economic unit. As a result, he said, critical conditions can be expected this winter with starvation, riots and disease a distinct possibility.

The wartime chief censor spent two months in the American, French and Russian zones of occupation surveying relations between the military government officials and the German population. He made his formal report several days ago and called at the White House today to go over it with Mr. Truman. The president is withholding it from publication until he finishes a study of it.

Craft Is Jailed For Panhandling

Peter F. Craft, docketed as of Mansfield, Ohio, was committed to the city jail for five days in default of a fine imposed in police court yesterday morning after he was found guilty of being drunk and panhandling.

Craft told Magistrate Oliver H. Bruce, Jr., that he had panhandled about $7.25 in two days. Bruce D. Wasson, 91 Henderson avenue, forfeited $10 bond when he did not appear in court on charges of being drunk and disorderly.

Two other men are being held in the city jail for investigation. They are Raymond Crawfis, 100-block Henry street, and Elmer Laber. Detective Lieut. R. Emmett Flynn and Officer J. Carl Stouffer arrested Crawfis while Detective Edwin R. Lilly and Officer Arthur Ken-nell arrested Laber.

ANNAPOLIS, Md., Nov. 15 (AP)—Gov. O'Connor announced today the appointment of Robert France, Baltimore, as general counsel to the public service commission, and of Joseph H. A. Rogan, Catonsville, as chairman of the state tax commission.

France succeeds Charles T. Leviness, who resigned today to become general solicitor of the Pennsylvania Railroad for Baltimore city, Anne Arundel and Charles counties. France formerly was chairman of the state tax commission and Rogan was chairman of the board of correction. The governor has not yet announced a successor to the latter position.

LIQUID CAPUDINE

LISTEN WORLD!

—By Elsie Robinson
(Registered U. S. Patent Office)

DRY ROT
I've met up with a good many miserable, muddled people since I've worked at this job... including myself.

Mad people, bad people, sad people... all of them in some sort of a jam. And nearly every one of 'em blaming somebody else for that jam. Although, as a matter of fact, they had wished it on themselves.

Funny, how easy it is to wish trouble on ourselves. And we don't need to DO anything, either. We just THINK ourselves into it... dream our way into disaster.

Never consider how many things you'll do in your mind that you wouldn't dare to do in real life... things you'd be ashamed to have the neighbors catch you doing? Usually it begins when you're bored. Or nursing a grouch. Or getting fed up with things in general. You'd like to start something. But you're afraid. It might get you in wrong at home, or down in the office. People might talk. So you don't really do anything.

YOU THINK ABOUT IT, INSTEAD.

Surely there can't be any harm in just thinking about a thing...? For instance—suppose you did pull that row with Bill. Gosh, you'd show that bozo where to head in! You'd give him what was coming to him! And so, for an idle hour, you speculate about what you'd like to do to Bill, and you see yourself, in your imagination, doing it. Then the next day, you speculate a little bit more. You give him two socks on the jaw instead of one. You mention a few more highly personal facts. Presently, you're staging regular knock-down-drag-out fights with Bill in your imagination whenever you have a spare moment... wallowing in your dislike... getting madder every time you think about him. But surely there can't be any harm in that?

Or maybe you're sick of being an underpaid cashier in a small bank. Wouldn't it be wonderful if those dollars that pass through your hands were really yours? You toy with the thought... you speculate on what a lot of money you could make in the market if you had just a temporary loan of a few hundred... you see yourself swelling out in new clothes at some ritzy hotel.

Then some fine day you find yourself on the wrong side of the bars serving a sentence for embezzlement.

Or under arrest for really giving Bill that sock on the jaw.

Or facing divorce proceedings because you and your husband have grown apart.

And you wonder how you got there.

You got there because you THOUGHT yourself there. Those

"harmless" meditations were just so much dry rot... spreading insidiously through your character, eating away your healthy scruples and standards... until at last you stood defenseless before temptation and the IMAGINED act leaped into terrible REALITY.

Beware of your imagination! "As a man thinketh so is he!" If you pretend to do a thing long enough, the chances are, you'll DO IT!

CAN'T KEEP GRANDMA IN HER CHAIR

She's as Lively as a Youngster—Now her Backache is better

Many sufferers relieve nagging backache quickly once they discover that the real cause of their trouble may be tired kidneys. The kidneys are Nature's chief way of taking the excess acids and waste out of the blood. They help most people pass about 3 pints a day.

When disorder of kidney function permits poisonous matter to remain in your blood, it may cause nagging backache, rheumatic pains, leg pains, loss of pep and energy, getting up at night, swelling, puffiness under the eyes, headaches and dizziness. Frequent or scanty passages with smarting and burning sometimes show there is something wrong with your kidneys or bladder.

Don't wait! Ask your druggist for Doan's Pills, a stimulant diuretic, used successfully by millions for over 40 years. Doan's gives happy relief and will help the 15 miles of kidney tubes flush out poisonous waste from your blood. Get Doan's Pills.

Bedford high school's powerful Bisons concluded a successful season on the gridiron last evening by taking LaSalle high school's Explorers into camp in the Fort Hill stadium by the score of 33 to 0.

A turnout of approximately 1,700 persons, including 1,368 cash customers, saw a plucky LaSalle team outplay the Pennsylvanians in the first half during which the visitors were limited to a single touchdown, then crumble under a third quarter assault which saw Coach Bruce M. Fisher's eleven clinch their tenth consecutive victory in the 1945 campaign by registering three times at the payoff stripe. The Buffaloes' final six-pointers was chalked up in the final quarter.

Explorers Threaten Thrice

Coach John J. Long's light but scrappy Explorers were in a scoring position three times during the game. In the first period after Bedford's touchdown, LaSalle marched from its own 40 to the Bedford 22, and as the second stanza got underway the North Centre street team advanced to the 19 where it relinquished possession of the ball on downs.

A 30-yard run by Tommy Carroll sparked LaSalle's second drive goalward early in the second period but this 64-yard march ended on the Bedford one-yard stripe when the Bisons took over on downs.

LaSalle's last threat came in the closing minutes of the game. A 23-yard pass, Cloonan to Steiner, runs of 16 and 11 yards by Cloonan and Carroll and a 15-yard penalty on Bedford featured this 73-yard jaunt which ended on the Buffaloes' 5-yard line just as the whistle ended the contest.

Bedford Is Outplayed

In the first half of the contest LaSalle completely surprised the visitors and flashed its best form of the season in reeling off seven first downs to the invaders' four and chalking up 97 net yards on running plays while the invaders were limited to twenty-four.

Coach Fisher's team scored its first touchdown about five minutes after the game got under way. A 21-yard runback of Joe Dorsey's punt by David Rose, the Centerville lad, started the Bisons on their way goalward. After the visitors were set back by five yards on an offside penalty to the LaSalle 40, Quarterback "Bud" Fisher heaved a pass to Jack Faust, which was good for 19 yards on a first down on the Explorers 21. In five plays with Fisher and Verville Nave alternating in totting the leather the visitors scored, with the Bedford fullback chalking up from the one-yard mark. Rose's kick for the point was wide.

Fumble Starts Rally

After a scoreless second period, Bedford got a break in the third period when Bob Mattingly fumbled the kickoff and Bedford recovered on the LaSalle 37. Fisher picked up eighteen yards in two plays, Waters gained eleven on a reverse and Fisher hit right end for the final eight and touchdown. "Bud" also marked up the extra point on a plunge.

Later in the period Joe Dorsey's punt was taken by Nave on the LaSalle two and he was downed on the eight. Bedford was twice penalized at this point and the visitors were thrown back to the Explorers two. Then the Bisons recovered and put on a sensational 98-yard march for their next score. Fisher and Waters marked up first downs on their own 22 and 35. After a penalty set back the visitors five yards, they resumed their drive. Mattingly, who knocked down Fisher's pass then "Bud" got loose for a sixty-yard run before being dragged down from the rear by Mattingly on the LaSalle 10. A reverse, Fisher to Waters produced the touchdown and Rose plunged the point to make the score 20-0.

Rose Gallops 34 Yards

A pass interception led to Bedford's fourth score of the game late in the third period. A Bedford player snared Cloonan's aerial on his own 46 and galloped 20 yards before being stopped on LaSalle's 34. On the first play Dave Rose, aided by brilliant blocking, raced the remaining distance to the goal line and smashed over for the extra point to boost the score to 27-0.

After LaSalle lost the ball on downs on the Bedford 36 in the final period, the Bisons uncoiled a brilliant aerial attack which culminated in the scoring of the final touchdown. Four successive passes, the first Fisher to Rose, and the next three, Fisher to Faust, netted 53 yards and moved the ball to LaSalle's 10. Fisher gained two yards on a ground play and after Mattingly batted down another Fisher pass, the Bedford quarter-back uncoiled a backfield pass to Faust and the latter raced over from the eight-yard line. Rose's kick for point was blocked.

In the second half Bedford outgained LaSalle 182 yards to 49 on ground plays.

Three Negroes appeared in Bedford's lineup, namely Bud, hunky center, Marshall and Williams, and the trio gave a good account of themselves.

Bedford's 75-piece band and Hyndman's 60-piece band played during intermission and were given a big hand by the crowd. The lineup:

Warneke Is Released; Seeks Umpiring Job

CHICAGO, Nov. 15 (AP)—Lon Warneke, the National League's famed "Arkansas Hummin' Bird," was released by the Chicago Cubs today with the announcement that the veteran pitcher was shopping for an umpiring job.

Warneke voluntarily retired from the Cubs in June, 1944, but was reinstated a year later to bolster the Bruins' pitching staff.

During the Cubs' 1945 pennant drive, the 36-year-old right-hander served mainly as a relief hurler, pitching fourteen innings in nine games and winding up with one defeat against no victories.

Warneke finished the 1943 season with a major league record of 192 victories and 120 defeats, and three 20-game seasons for the Cubs, whom he joined in 1930 as a rookie from Reading, Pa., in the International League.

Beall, Central Will Close League Season

The W. M. I. League's soccer season will draw to a close this afternoon when Beall high school's champions play hosts to Central high school, of Lonaconing, in Frostburg.

A victory—its eighth in a row—would give Beall a perfect record for the season.

In three previous starts against the Frostburg eleven, the Orange and Black has failed to score a point, losing 13-0, 14-0 and 3-0.

Move To Raise Salaries Of Congressmen Goes Onto Senate Sidetrack

WASHINGTON, Nov. 15 (AP)—The presidentially-backed move to raise congressmen's salaries from $10,000 to $20,000 went onto a Senate sidetrack today.

The Civil Service committee decided to take no action on it at this time, but it approved a measure raising the pay of civil service employees twenty per cent.

Conference Rules Will Keep Gaels Out of Rose Bowl

St. Mary's Is People's Choice and Will Land in Some Bowl

By BILL BECKER
LOS ANGELES, Nov. 15 (AP)—St. Mary's Gaels, the sentimental choice for the western representative in the Rose Bowl, figure to enhance their reputation Saturday against the UCLA Bruins, but their chance of smelling the roses are virtually nil.

There's no doubt about the Gaels' class—they've won seven out of seven, piling up 262 points to their opponents' 19, a record far ahead of any other western college. But they don't belong to the Pacific Coast Conference and the Rose Bowl, by tradition and contract, has become a "for members only" proposition.

"St. Mary's is not a member of the conference and wouldn't fit in to the agreement now existing," Victor O. Schmidt, conference commissioner, said today.

The contract between the tournament of roses and the conference gives the conference the prerogative of picking both teams for the Rose Bowl. Since that pact has been in effect, the conference fathers have never looked beyond their own champion for the west's representative.

While Schmidt's statement put the damper on any rose arbor the Gaels might have entertained, St. Mary's wasn't totally unprepared for such tidings. Los Angeles sports writers, who loudly boosted the Gaels for the Rose Bowl while Washington was in the conference lead, became church silent when Southern California and UCLA entered the top two week.

The Gaels, after wallowing USC 26-0, are the people's choice here, but popular clamor for a non-conference team has gone unheeded before.

But the Gaels shouldn't feel too miffed. Win, lose or draw against UCLA, Jimmy Phelan's whiskered wonders (average age 18.3 years) are almost certain to land in some bowl New Year's day.

Kirkwood Leads In Azalea Open

Trick Shot Artist Posts 68 in First Round of $10,000 Tourney

MOBILE, Ala., Nov. 15 (AP)—Veteran Joe Kirkwood, Philadelphia, Pa., trick-shot artist who is having one of the best years of his long career, took a one-stroke lead in the $10,000 Azalea open golf tournament by posting a sensational four-under-par 68 today.

Three fellow pros, Ben Hogan, of Hershey, Pa., Sam Byrd of Detroit, and Denny Shute, of Akron, Ohio, were close on his heels with 69's.

The professionals, who have run second to the amateurs in the last two weeks on the PGA winter circuit, appeared to be getting back into top form under ideal golfing weather at the Mobile Country Club course.

Lt. Cary Middlecoff, young Memphis, Tenn., army dentist, who won the recent North and South open at Pinehurst, N. C., was the best of the amateurs, turning in a 73. A stroke behind him was Frank Stranahan, 23-year-old Toledo, Ohio, amateur, who captured the Durham, N. C., open.

A twelfth place winner in the recent Richmond, Va., open, Kirkwood was hitting them all down the middle today and putting accurately. His scorecard listed four birdies and one eagle.

Two other favorites, lanky Dutch Hazrton, of Little Rock, and stocky Tony Penna, of Dayton, Ohio, had difficulty in controlling their drives and finished well down the list. Hazrton had a 76, Penna 82.

Jug McSpaden of Philadelphia, Pa., who joined the tour last night was one of a half-dozen pros turning in even par 72's. The others were Felix Serafin, Pittston, Pa.; Stan Horne, Montreal, Canada; Harry Todd, Dallas, Tex., and Vic Ghezzi, Deal N. J.

Memorial Stadium Is Proposed for Richmond

RICHMOND, Va., Nov. 15 (AP)—Mayor William C. Herbert's Citizens' Athletic Committee today recommended the construction of a stadium seating at least 25,000 persons and an adjoining building for indoor sports to seat 10,000.

The committee suggested that consideration be given to building the athletic center "as a living memorial to the Richmond boys who made the supreme sacrifice in World War Two."

Unbeaten Winchester Team Defeats Romney

WINCHESTER, Va., Nov. 15—Handley high school's undefeated Judges kept their 1945 football record unblemished by trouncing the Romney (W. Va.) high school Pilgrims today by the score of 36 to 0.

It was Handley's eighth consecutive victory of the season. The defeat was the fourth of the season for Romney which has four victories and a tie game to its credit.

Yankees Appoint Weiss To Direct Player Personnel

Former Leader of Farm System Is Elevated to New Position

By V. L. TALBOT
NEW YORK, Nov. 15 (AP)—The Yankees held a stenographer of a press conference in their plush new offices today at which it was (a) announced that George Weiss was assuming charge of all baseball player operations within the Yankee organization, and (b) hinted darkly that All-America football conference would have a club in Yankee stadium next season unless the New York Football Giants changed their tune.

It was all very confusing, with first Larry McPhail, president of the baseball Yankees holding forth, and then Dan Topping, part owner of the baseball Yankees and entire owner of the orphan football team, the "Yanks of Boston," telling his troubles, and a large segment of the metropolitan press trying to split them apart.

Gridders To Leave Stadium

Topping said, first, that in his capacity as football club owner he had just been given permission by the Yankees to play football in the stadium for the next ten years.

He said that, unless the football Giants of the National league, who play at the Polo Grounds, gave his orphaned football team a clear track on five of the nine football Sundays in New York in 1946, that he would jump his pigskinners into the new All-America Conference, which Jimmy Crowley is president.

"We won't leave the National league if we can help it," Topping said. "I'm talking with President Tim Mara of the Giants now and trying to work something out. The All-America wants us very much and has made several offers. I think," said Topping, "that it will be a good thing in the long run to have two professional football leagues. I'll guarantee this much, that there will be pro football in Yankee stadium."

MacPhail (wearing a catcher's mask as in indication to the assembled writers that he was speaking in his capacity as head of the baseball Yanks), then told of Weiss's elevation to complete command of all player personnel. Weiss in the past controlled only the Yankee farm operations.

"This is my swan song," declared the Maryland squire. "From now on when you want to know anything about players, you talk to George. He makes out all contracts, signs all players, makes all player trades. He'll consult me now and then, I hope, but I'm not going to second guess him."

I understand that Joe DiMaggio is in town, all right. He will talk contract with Weiss—not with me. It's up to George to tell you when Joe signs his contract. From now on, I'm just going to be president of the club."

Will Install Lights

MacPhail said the Yankees had let contracts for a lighting system at the stadium to cost over $200,000, and that they would be ready to play night baseball when the 1946 season opens.

MacPhail said his outfit would be willing to take a loss to get the annual Army-Navy football game away from Philadelphia, and that the Louis-Corn heavy weight championship next spring would not go out of New York "if it's only a question of rental."

Colonials Will Sponsor Cage Team This Winter

WASHINGTON, Nov. 15 (AP)—George Washington university announced today that it will return to intercollegiate athletic competition in the approaching basketball season after a two-year layoff.

Ten or twelve games will be scheduled with Southern Conference teams. George Washington won the conference title in 1943. All four major Washington schools, Georgetown, American, Catholic and George Washington, now have announced they will play basketball this season.

Army, Navy, St. Mary's Picked To Win Big Games

Alabama, Cornell, Brown, Notre Dame, Penn State and Indiana Conceded Edge by Rice.

By GRANTLAND RICE
They are moving into the head of the football stretch this week with Army still far in front. Trailing Army in the upper brackets we have Navy, Alabama, Oklahoma A. M. St. Mary's, Indiana, Holy Cross and Virginia still unbeaten, although Navy and Indiana have been tied.

Army still dominates the week-end picture for in Pennsylvania the cadets have the roughest hurdle on their schedule so far, where at last they meet a team with a big, aggressive line that may give even the West Point forward wall about all it can handle. Pennsylvania, at least, is better equipped to hand Army much more trouble than it has known so far.

Navy has a good game with Wisconsin, which offers Navy her chance to prove the Michigan overthrow was no one-day uprising.

One of the big games of the day will be St. Mary's against U.C.L.A., a team that still has a chance to hear the Rose Bowl call. This will be Wedemeyer's and St. Mary's last contest before the bowl season opens and it may be her hardest game. Ohio State and Michigan have Illinois and Purdue in the road before they meet next week. Indiana takes on Pittsburgh, in a non-conference game. Alabama, Holy Cross and Oklahoma A. and M. should remain among the unbeaten in their forward drive for a bowl visit where all three now hold leading roles. But it will be the Army-Pennsylvania game that will carry national interest.

Army Is Favorite

ARMY-PENNSYLVANIA. A contest that should be the Army's hardest test so far. The main reason—Pennsylvania's big, rugged line, plus a first class passing attack. Either an Army off day or rain and mud can make this a close one. Otherwise Army again rates three or more touchdowns better. Army.

NAVY-WISCONSIN. Navy finally located its compass a week ago against Michigan. Wisconsin is only fair. Main interest will concern Navy's improvement. Navy.

ST. MARY'S-UCLA. St. Mary's has been the West Coast sensation with Wedemeyer, Spike Cadore and a flock of 17 and 18-year-old kids. UCLA so far has lost only one Conference game, to Southern Cal. It is still a leading Rose Bowl challenger. The pick is St. Mary's.

ALABAMA-VANDERBILT. Alabama and Gilmer more than Vanderbilt can handle. Alabama.

HOLY CROSS. Temple. Holy Cross and Koslowski will still be unbeaten and bound. Holy Cross.

CORNELL-DARTMOUTH. One of the better games of the day. A highly traditional affair. Cornell has the margin in backfield strength. Cornell.

SYRACUSE-COLGATE. Another old-fashioned powwow between two well-matched teams. Slight nod to Syracuse.

Brown Picked over Howard

BROWN-HARVARD. Harvard and her rather skimpy season hard to figure. Brown improving. Brown.

COLUMBIA-PRINCETON. What earlier looked to be a soft touch for Columbia no longer looks that way.

All Reserved Seat Tickets Are Sold For Thanksgiving

Practically all reserved seat tickets for the Allegheny-Fort Hill city and CVA league championship game on Thanksgiving day have been sold and the few remaining pasteboards early this morning, Ralph R. Webster, principal of Allegheny high school, announced last evening.

Approximately 4,800 reserved seat tickets were printed for the game. The price of the tickets was $1 for adults and fifty cents for students, including tax.

Stores handling the tickets reported a sellout yesterday. General admission tickets are yet to be sold. Arrangements for the sale of these tickets will be announced by the schools in advance of the game.

But Princeton still isn't Pennsylvania. Columbia still has her backfield. Columbia.

L.S.U.—GEORGIA TECH. One of the hardest to pick. Both have been on the in-and-out side. Tech took a big bound upward last week. Georgia Tech.

NOTRE DAME-NORTHWESTERN. Notre Dame won't be quite the same after her two games in a row with Navy and Army, especially the latter. For all that a slight edge to Notre Dame.

MICHIGAN-PURDUE. One of the major Big Nine contests of the day with each rated just back of Indiana. Little to choose. Michigan.

INDIANA-PITTSBURGH. Bo McMillin's Hoosiers too good for the Panthers. Indiana.

OKLAHOMA A. and M.—TEXAS TECH. The Oklahoma Aggies should go through unbeaten. Oklahoma A. and M.

OKLAHOMA—MISSOURI. Another close one. Missouri has been improving. Missouri.

Lions Given Edge

PENN STATE—MICHIGAN STATE. Penn State with only one defeat this season should take this one. Penn State.

TEXAS-T.C.U. Always one of the feature games of the Southwest. Texas with Bechtel and others still looks to be a Cotton Bowl favorite. Texas.

CALIFORNIA—OREGON. Extremely close. California has slight margin in backfield. California.

OREGON STATE-WASH. STATE. On the neck and neck side. Oregon State.

MINNESOTA-IOWA. Minnesota has taken a big dip but this has been Iowa's worst season. Minnesota.

TULANE-CLEMSON. This has been an erratic Tulane team but the Green Wave is the pick.

GEORGIA-AUBURN. Another old rivalry. Trippi makes the difference. Georgia.

Buckeyes Need This One

OHIO STATE-ILLINOIS. Ohio State needs this one to remain in conference race. Ohio State.

WAKE FOREST-NORTH CAROLINA. Wake Forest.

BAYLOR-TULSA. Tulsa has dropped two close ones to unbeaten teams, and is favored to win this one. Tulsa.

RICE-TEXAS A. and M. A lusty Southwestern scramble. Texas A. and M.

N.Y.U.—RUTGERS. The nod here goes to Rutgers.

Fort Hill Gridders Will Battle Keyser In Stadium Tonight

Fort Hill and Keyser will lower the curtain on the nocturnal football season in Cumberland today when they clash today at 8 p. m. in the Fort Hill stadium.

It will be Keyser's second appearance of the season in Cumberland, Coach Fred Clark's Golden Tornado having dropped a 32 to 7 decision to Allegheny on October 20.

The Sentinel will be gunning for their seventh victory of the season, having won six and played a 13-13 tie with A.H.S. in contests played to date.

Keyser's record is seven victories and two defeats. In addition to the AHS setback, the Mineral counties lost a 9-0 decision to Moorefield.

Dan Staley, Ed Milbrada and Bill Spangler will do the officiating.

In another scholastic game on tap for today, Moorefield's Yellowjackets, champions of the Potomac Valley Conference, will play hosts to the Petersburg Vikings in Moorefield. The Jacks have won eight games and lost one.

Tossers Are Named For Tour of Pacific

NEW YORK, Nov. 15 (AP)—A squad of National league baseball players, led by Coach Chuck Dressen of the Brooklyn Dodgers, will leave late this month on a tour of the Pacific to play ball and provide other entertainment for military and naval personnel. It was announced today by USO-Camp shows.

The tour, beginning about November 26, is expected to take the players to the Philippines, Guam, and Japan. In addition to playing games against service teams, the players will visit hospitals and put on indoor programs.

The squad includes Umpire Larry Goetz, Tom Brown, Ralph Branca, Mike Sandlock, Tom Seats and Trainer John Griffen. Brooklyn: Whitey Kurowski, St. Louis: Red Barrett and Ed Wright, Boston: Jim Russell and Al Gerhauser, Pittsburgh: Frank McCormick and Al Lakeman, Cincinnati: Andy Seminick, Philadelphia, and Bill Voiselle, Bill Jurgels and Buddy Kerr, New York.

Today's mid-week attendance boosted the season total to 4,622,227. Their wild and woolly waging left the finger filberts gasping with an average $2,926.384 contributed daily or just under $100 per person per afternoon.

Kaye Will Return To Radio Show On CBS Tonight

NEW YORK, Nov. 15. (AP)—Danny Kaye, who has been six weeks overseas entertaining the boys, including those in Japan, will be back in his CBS radio show at 10:30 Friday night. He started the series in September, then turned the program over to various guest acts as supplied by other radio artists.

MRS Kaye is getting ready to start a Saturday afternoon series by the same Nashville performers who put on "Grand Ole Opry" for NBC. It will be called "Opry House Matinee" and is to have a half-hour preview on the network Friday night at 10. The "Think You Know Music" is omitted for one time to make way for the presentation.

Welterweights are fighting when ABC cuts in its bout microphone at 10. They are Tippy Larkin and Nick Moran, scheduled for ten rounds.

This time the MRS "Meet the Press" is to direct its questions at 10:30 into the field of atomic energy. For that reason the guest with the answers is to be the scientist who worked on the project, Dr. J. R. Oppenheimer.

The series of the "World's Great Novels," which has been running for some time on NBC, comes to a close with the 11:30 broadcast. It also will be the last part of "Huckleberry Finn." . . . Bill Stern expects his sports-casting guest on NBC at 10:30 Jinx Falkenberg of the movies. . . . A Victory bond band show is to be available to late NBC listeners at 12:30 as supplied by the Tommy Dorsey orchestra.

More Pupils Are Out of Classes Due to Illness

Eight Per Cent Increase in Absentees Is Reported by Principals

An eight per cent increase in absenteeism was noted yesterday in Cumberland schools compared to Wednesday with approximately 2,500 pupils absent from their classes.

Allegany high school started the day with 520 absent but this total swelled to 570 by mid-afternoon when fifty more students became ill and had to be sent home.

Principal Ralph Webster said that pupils who were apparently in good health one hour would suddenly break out with beads of perspiration on their foreheads, complain of dizziness and frequently vomit right in their class rooms.

"It seems to hit them awfully quick," the principal commented.

Miss Nellie Powell, principal of the LaVale school, said that her list of absentees increased to thirty-six yesterday compared to twenty-six Wednesday.

Webster Cancels Movie

"Children who appear to be all right one hour will suddenly start perspiring and then their heads will be on their desks and they have to be sent home," he said.

Webster said that he cancelled a movie scheduled for yesterday in the school auditorium in order to cut down on congestion. The principal said he had noted much coughing by pupils on his tour of the building.

Victor D. Helsey, principal of Fort Hill high school, reported that the number of students ill increased yesterday with 427 reported out compared 488 Wednesday.

Helsey stated that while practically ninety-nine per cent of the pupils absent are really sick that a small minority is taking advantage of the situation to absent themselves from their classes.

"When these students are sick they should stay indoors and be under bedclothes," Helsey said. "There is no excuse for absent pupils being outdoors running around."

Some Return at LaSalle

The first indication that a break may be forthcoming was evinced yesterday at LaSalle high school where the absentee list dropped from seventy Tuesday and Wednesday to fifty yesterday.

Health authorities yesterday expressed the hope that the current cold snap would break the back of the epidemic, which while mild in nature is proving highly contagious.

State and county school and health officials have deferred closing schools since the epidemic is mild and it is hoped that cold weather will see the end of it. Both school officials and health officers are keeping close check on the situation.

The Beall high school opera, scheduled for today, has been postponed to Tuesday, November 27, on the advice of Dr. Winter R. Phelan, assistant health officer.

Other reports on absenteeism from schools yesterday showed that Pennsylvania avenue jumped from 154 to 170; Columbia street school from 153 to 187; Gephart from forty to forty-four; West Side from sixty-three to seventy-eight; and Beall high school, Frostburg, from 103 to 158.

HIT-AND-RUN DRIVER TO RECEIVE HEARING

George Morgan, Route 1, Allegany Grove, will be given a hearing this morning at 10 o'clock before Magistrate Owen Porter in Frostburg on charges of violating two state motor vehicle laws.

The Allegany Grove man was driving east on Route 40 early last evening when he sideswiped a west-bound car driven by Chester Stewart, Frostburg, on a curve at Eckhart Mines, according to Trooper Harold L. Basore, who investigated.

The trooper added that Morgan kept on going after the accident but that Stewart gave chase and stopped Morgan at Clarysville. The cars were only slightly damaged.

James J. Dorsey, 176 Armstrong street, Keyser, W. Va., forfeited $112.90 bond last evening when he failed to appear before Magistrate Roy S. Bowman in Cresaptown for hearings on charges of operating while under the influence of liquor and of drunken driving.

The car the Keyser man was driving crashed against the rear of a parked car on McMullen highway Wednesday evening while the driver, Pvt. Robert A. Sisk, Cresap street, was changing a tire. A local girl, Josephine Lechitter, 16, an occupant of the parked car, was slightly injured.

Mexican, Not Jap, Rides Train, Police Find

A Mexican, Guadalupe Hanchez Leiva, mistaken locally as a Japanese, was arrested in Martinsburg, W. Va., for riding a train and will be heard this week. He was seen riding through Cumberland.

Exploration of Coal Measures Is Resumed in Allegany and Garrett

Resumption of the exploration of coal measures in Allegany and Garrett counties by the federal Bureau of Mines was reported to the monthly meeting of chamber of commerce directors last night.

Up to the present, fifteen three-inch holes have been completed and two are now under way. One is on Piney mountain 1.4 miles northeast of Clarysville and the other is near Chestnut Grove church on the southeasterly side of Backbone mountain about four miles due west of Bloomington.

Approximate $50,000 has been spent on this program so far.

Word was received from the Veterans' Administration that Hagerstown had been definitely decided upon as the place for the establishment of a sub-regional office.

Handicapped Celanese Veterans To Receive Plant-wide Seniority

A recommendation by Local 1874, Textile Workers Union of America, CIO, that veterans who return to the Celanese plant with physical handicaps acquired in military service be placed and retained on any job he is capable of doing, or may be trained to do, on a basis of plant-wide seniority was accepted yesterday afternoon by the Celanese Corporation of America, James A. Dundon, regional TWUA director, announced yesterday.

The TWUA official said the proposal was acted upon by the local at a membership meeting held Wednesday evening in the union hall. The action will cover only those veterans who are permanently handicapped and are unable to perform their previous duties.

Dundon added the union is working out details with the plant's management to take care of veterans who are temporarily disabled.

Three recommendations giving greater job security to older workers at the Amcelle plant, passed by the members of the union at Wednesday's meeting were also agreed upon by the company yesterday. They are:

Employees accepting transfers subsequent to May 1, 1940, will be considered as temporary and will be given an opportunity to decide whether they now desire to be considered temporary or permanently transferred.

All employees affected by the May 1, 1940, deadline will be given until December 1, 1945, to decide whether to remain as permanent or temporary transfers. Veterans returning after December 1 will be given an opportunity to make similar decisions.

Workers who wish to remain temporary will be returned to their resident subdivision without loss of seniority and as made necessary by returning veterans. The last employee transferred to the subdivision will be the first to be returned to his original subdivision.

Dundon added that full details of temporary transfers and plant-wide seniority for disabled veterans will be discussed and explained during the ten-week Contract Interpretation Forum which will begin this evening at 7:30 o'clock in the union hall.

Union officials reported that veterans are returning to the Celanese plant in appreciable numbers. Last week fifty-five Celanese veterans reported for work while thirty-five returned the week of November 3.

ENGINEER ASSISTS HESKETT IN DEVISING SMOKE CURB THAT WILL BE EFFECTIVE

Charles Z. Heskett, city attorney, said yesterday the best features of the Pittsburgh and St. Louis smoke control ordinances as well as the good points of the laws of other cities are being combined in an effort to give Cumberland the best possible regulations covering the smoke nuisance situation here.

Smoke ordinances in Pittsburgh and St. Louis are the best of the lot in the opinion of Heskett who has given the problem consideration study. However, he hopes to improve on these ordinances in order to meet Cumberland's individual problems along this line.

Heskett said yesterday the preparation of an adequate smoke ordinance required the aid of an engineer due to the various technical problems. Accordingly, he sought aid from Fred T. Small, manager of the Amcelle plant of the Celanese Corporation.

Small said he assigned Max A. Shaffer, 815 Braddock road, to work with Heskett and to date considerable progress has been made.

Heskett said yesterday that he wants a thoroughly enforceable ordinance and one which police officers and the public in general will understand despite its complexity. The city attorney has also asked the mayor and city council to submit any ideas which they may have on the subject.

Lt. Margaret Wood Served with Nurses Corps in India for 31 Months

This country, Lt. Wood cared for American combat veterans from the China, Burma, and India theaters of operations.

"Working among these war wounded and seeing their fine spirit in facing months of hospitalization, I know that we must not let these men down now," Lt. Wood said yesterday at a press conference in Baltimore.

"We must buy bonds to help these wounded men in their rehabilitation so that they can return to a normal life. We must give these veterans the best in hospital equipment, reconditioning and occupational facilities, and artificial limbs," Lt. Wood asserted.

"Victory Bonds must be bought by every individual if we are to supply the thousands of men still in army and navy hospitals in this country," the army nurse said.

Chest Campaign Workers Urged To Work Harder

Officials Say Goal Will Be Reached if Proper Canvass Is Made

Officers and team captains of the National War Fund-Community Chest campaign yesterday were calling on their workers for a big effort in their attempt to reach the combined goal of $118,671 by noon today when the fifth report meeting will be made at the Central YMCA.

Officials of the drive have told the field workers that the goal will be reached if the field is thoroughly canvassed. It was pointed out that some of the "toughest" regiments have already reached their goals.

4,957 Contributors

The drive has now topped the halfway point in reaching its objective with fifty-five per cent of the amount needed subscribed.

The audited report shows that 4,957 contributors have given a total of $81,192.

In the Classified section the mercantile division, headed by Hugh Stride and N. S. Gugenheimer, is leading the race with $2,449 or 34 per cent of goal. Utilities division, G. L. Storey, leader, however, has reported a total of $1,010 or 84 per cent of goal. Foods division, Miss (Continued on Page 2; Col. 1)

County E Bond Sale Totals $134,276; Goal Is $800,000

The sale of E bonds in Allegany county in the Victory Loan drive totaled $134,276.25 to November 13, according to Federal Reserve bank figures. Lynn C. Lashley, chairman of the county campaign, said last night. The county E bond quota is $800,000.

The total sale to Tuesday represents almost seventeen per cent of the goal, Lashley said, adding that the drive will continue through December 31.

He said he feels confident that when that date is reached "we will have reached the goal, provided the people of the county co-operate."

"Of course," Lashley added, "we can't use as a sales argument a 'Win the War' slogan, but, after all, E bonds provide the people of the county with a systematic way of saving."

B. and O. Cleared Of Responsibility In Crossing Case

The Baltimore and Ohio Railroad yesterday was cleared in circuit court on charges of contempt in disregarding a court injunction against blocking the railway crossing at Mexico Farms.

However, two of four employees on trial were found guilty after a trial before Chief Judge William A. Huster and Associate Judge Walter C. Capper.

A third employee, S. A. Carey, Brunswick, had yet to learn where he stands since the court committed him to the county jail for appearing at the proceedings under the influence of alcohol.

Gives Incoherent Answers

The first witness called to the stand, Carey gave incoherent answers to questions put by Horace P. Whitworth, attorney for the board of county commissioners, complainants in the case.

Carey denied that he had been drinking but he was committed to the care of the sheriff by Judge Huster who deduced from his conduct in court that he was intoxicated. He stumbled into and out of the witness stand and when he first started to go into the witness box he sat down on the platform on which the witness chair is placed instead of in the chair.

Carey was conductor of a B. & O. freight train which invoked court action by blocking the Mexico Farms crossing October 23. Engineer of the train was R. E. Working, Martinsburg, W. Va., who was found guilty at the trial.

Both Carey and Working have been demoted by the B. & O. with consequent sacrifice of seniority rights, according to William A. Gunter, who was co-counsel with D. Lindley Sloan, for the company.

C. S. Palmer, Brunswick, engineer of a train which blocked the same crossing on October 26, was also found guilty. He too has been demoted by the railroad according to Gunter.

Trainmen Held Responsible

A. D. Potter, who was the conductor on Palmer's train, was found not guilty of the contempt charge. In his case it was found both in court and at an investigation previously held by the railroad that there were extenuating circumstances to account for failing to break his train at the crossing.

It was brought out at the trial, and readily conceded by the complainants in the case, that the B. & O. had done all in its power to obey the court's injunction against blocking traffic at the Mexico Farms crossing. All four trainmen involved in the infraction admitted that they had received orders in advance not to block the crossing.

Engineer Working said it was an "oversight" on his part. Engineer Palmer said practically the same (Continued on Page 2; Col. 4)

Small Firms Help Counteract Job Decline, Eves Says

States Smaller Establishments Absorb Decrease in Major Industries

While there has been a decrease in employment in Cumberland's major industries as compared to a year ago, smaller industrial units and service and mercantile establishments have "undoubtedly" absorbed this decrease, Roy W. Eves, president of the chamber of commerce, reports.

This is evidenced Eves stated, by the fact that the United States Employment Service shows a total registration of 500 as of October 15 and placements last month of 358.

The employment decrease in major industries does not indicate that the local employment is below that of a year ago, he said.

In a letter to the National Industrial Information Committee, Philadelphia, on November 6, Eves wrote that there is a decrease of 1,032 in employment in major industries in Cumberland and the immediate surrounding area. He added that the decrease in payroll, according to the latest figures available, is $74,589.

Advertising for Men

"Our local industries are advertising for men," Eves said, pointing out that "servicemen are returning in increased numbers and usually, after a few weeks' rest, are returning to their former jobs or taking up new work."

Eves also informed the committee that at the present time a strike has stopped operations completely at the plant of the Kelly-Springfield Tire Company.

As far as housing is concerned, the situation is critical "with no evidence of relief in sight," Eves said. He added that a large number of persons are ready to build houses for themselves but that the shortage of materials, particularly lumber, and the scarcity of construction labor, together with what people think are high prices, has militated against what might be a period of intense activity in house construction.

Not Anxious To Bid

Contractors, Eves stated, are not anxious to bid on new work under present conditions and there is no evidence of any interest on the part of capital to build houses or apartments for rent.

A factor which has tended to slow up business activity, in the opinion of contractors, merchants and millmen, is the uncertainty of prices and the squeezing out of profits, Eves reported.

He said the outlook for Christmas business is good with the volume to be limited largely by the difficulty in securing suitable merchandise, assuming that the Kelly strike is settled.

Mrs. Martin Apple received a gift for recruiting the most members during the drive.

Dr. Dern Says Courage, Hard Work And Friendliness Needed in Nation

Describing the United States as the only nation in the world whose inhabitants are still "able to laugh," Dr. William Dern, lecturer and humorist of Newport, Ky., said last night that courage, hard work and a spirit of friendliness, combined with the ability to enjoy the humorous side of everyday life, can help the country through the difficult days of reconversion.

Dr. Dern addressed ninety-four members and guests of the Cumberland Kiwanis Club at a turkey dinner at the Ali Ghan Shrine Country Club in observance of ladies' night.

Tells Many Anecdotes

Interpersing his talk with many anecdotes to illustrate typical examples of American humor, Dr. Dern said that three organizations which must help the nation through the process of reconversion are the church, the schools, and service clubs.

The speaker developed his theme in anatomical terms, pointing out that the human body depends upon the backbone, the breastbone and the collarbone to "hold it together." The backbone, he said, represents courage; the breastbone, directly over the heart, symbolizes the spirit of kindness in the heart; and the collarbone, referred to in the Bible as the place where oxen were yoked, represents the will to work hard for worthwhile causes.

After pointing out the need for all three qualities, Dr. Dern emphasized that a fourth "bone," the funnybone, is essential to America.
